About the Author

Before Annette Dauphin Simon became an author and illustrator of books for young readers, she was an advertising creative director in Raleigh and Austin. She first found spine poetry as a bookseller in an indie bookshop in Florida, but this book began in Southport.

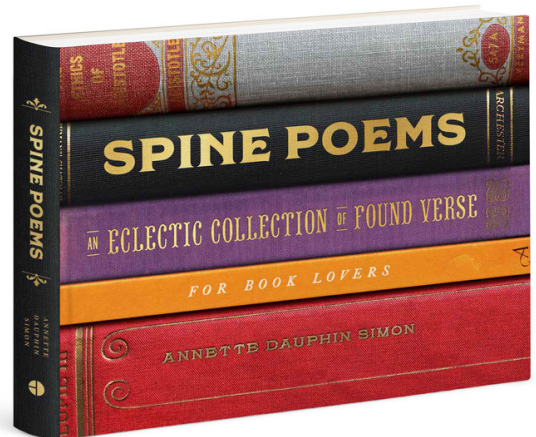

Annette and her husband Kent are the proud parents of two lovely grown humans and one who lives yet in their hearts--whose death at age three first led them to Southport on a healing, family trip. Nearly 30 years later, they happily call Southport home.

About the Book

"Witty and inspiring. I must get up to make such a poem immediately."--Jan Karon, #1 New York Times bestselling author.

"A fun gift' that'll surely inspire you to start mixing up your stacks."--Ron Charles, The Washington Post

A charming, clever, and original collection of more than 100 spine poems—a popular form of found poetry composed by arranging book spines.
